Anti-Sexual Harassment Policy at XLRI Delhi-NCR

1. SHORT TITLE

a. This policy shall be called the "Anti-Sexual Harassment Policy at XLRI Delhi-NCR. ("Policy")"

b. The Indian Parliament has enacted The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act and Rules, 2013 along with all amendments from time to time ("Act") with the objective to provide protection against sexual harassment to women at a workplace. The All-India Council for Technical Education ("AICTE") has also passed regulations namely All India Council for Technical Education (Gender Sensitization, Prevention and Prohibition of Sexual Harassment of Women Employees and Students and Redressal of Grievances in Technical Institutions) Regulations, 2016 ("Regulation") (The said Act and the said Regulations are collectively, unless the context implies the contrary, shall together be referred to as "The Law").

c. XLRI Delhi-NCR ("Institute/Institution") recognizes that the Law has been passed as a measure to provide equal opportunity to work for the women employees as well as students and grant them equality under the Constitution of India. Institute understands that a healthy academic environment can be seriously impaired when individuals are subjected to discrimination by way of sexual harassment.

d. Institute is committed to work and provide support towards provision of a safe and conducive academic environment for everyone, regardless of gender. Additionally, it is committed to create an ethos of acceptance and inclusivity such that individuals regardless of their sexual orientation or sexual preferences, individuals belonging to LGBTQIA+ community and individuals choosing to not be in any of the socially constructed communities and adopting a fluid/non-binary approach feel respected and accepted at the workplace.

In light of the above, the institute has formulated this Policy as per the Law and, as a healthy practice and as part of internal policies, is also extending the benefit of the law to not only its students as well as women employees but to its other employees who may belong to any gender. Thus, this Policy shall be applicable to all complaints of sexual harassment made by anyone against an employee / student of the Institute.

2. SCOPE

This policy extends to any employee (as defined below), student (as defined below) and / or any other party at the workplace (as defined below) and shall also extend to any resident on campus, employee, student, service provider and / or any other party connecting through online mediums as well.

3. DEFINITIONS

a. Sexual harassment would mean and include but shall not be limited to any of the following:

i. Physical contact and advances including touching, deliberately brushing against another person, physical contact or molestation, offending an individual's sensibilities and affecting her performance, interference with an individual's normal work movement or assault.

ii. Demand or requests for sexual favours, offensive or unwelcome flirtations, unwanted sexual advances or propositions, lurid stares, stalking, threats or suggestive or insulting sounds, eve teasing, innuendos and taunts of sexual nature, physical confinement against one's will and likely to intrude upon one's privacy, act or conduct by a person which makes the environment at the campus hostile or intimidating to a person belonging to the other sex.

iii. Making sexually coloured remarks containing sexual tones/undertones including sexual epithets, derogatory slurs, sexually explicit jokes, sounds.

iv. Showing pornography such as derogatory or sexually explicit posters, cartoons, photographs, magazines, drawings, or other printed items; suggestive objects, pictures; emails, screensavers; or other electronic communications; graphic commentaries and leering or obscene gestures.

v. Having posters, photographs, display of pictures, signs, paintings, etc. in the background with any sexual context while being on video calls.

vi. The inappropriate behaviours listed above may be committed either verbally or in written form via letters, video calls/audio calls, phone calls, texts, e-mails, on any social media platform or through any other electronic communication.

vii. Any other unwelcome visual, verbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature.

If the below circumstances occur in addition to and along with the ones mentioned above, these acts would also amount to be an act of Sexual Harassment:

i. When either explicitly or implicitly, in return for an employment or a promotion, or for awarding higher marks in examination or in case of evaluation of a person towards any institute or academic activity;

ii. Act or conduct by a person which makes the environment at the campus hostile or intimidating to another person.

iii. Implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in employment, administrative, academic, and other activities at / relating to the institute.
iv. Implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment in employment, administrative, academic, and other activities at / relating to the institute.
v. Humiliating treatment likely to affect health or safety.
vi. Implied or explicit threat about the present or future status of the person concerned

AND

vii. Any other unwelcome gesture by an employee or a student having sexual undertones.

Such behaviour will be considered to be an offence of sexual harassment in the following contexts: within the institute premises itself and in other Institute related settings such as hostels, offices, educational or training trips, seminars and conferences or Institute related social events.

b. "Campus" shall mean the location in which the Institute and its related institutional facilities like libraries, laboratories, lecture halls, residences, halls, toilets, student centres, hostels, dining halls, stadiums, parking areas, parks-like settings and other amenities like health centres, canteens etc., are situated and also includes extended campus and covers within its scope places visited as a student of the Institute including transportation provided for the purpose of commuting to and from the institution, the locations outside the institution on field trips, internships, study tours, excursions, short-term placements, places used for camps, cultural festivals, sports meets and such other activities where a person is participating in the capacity of an employee or a student of the Institute;

c. "Workplace" will be taken to mean any space in which institute related academic or administrative or other activities take place which includes –

i. Any department, organisation, institution, undertaking, establishment, enterprise, institution, office, branch or unit which is established, owned, controlled or wholly or substantially financed by funds provided directly or indirectly by the Institute.
ii. Any sports institute, stadium, sports complex or competition or games venue, whether residential or not used for training, sports or other activities relating thereof in the Institute.
iii. Any place visited by an employee of the Institute arising out of or during the course of their employment or a student by way of their academic association with the Institute. Any of these activities, if conducted online, shall be considered to be a workplace too.

For the purposes of this policy, unless the context be repugnant thereto, the word

"Workplace" shall mean and include both Workplace and Campus as mentioned above. Further the Internal Committee shall have the discretion, depending on the facts and circumstances of the complaint, to determine whether any alleged act is an act of sexual harassment and whether it is covered under the ambit of 'workplace' for the application of the provisions of this policy.

a. "Employee" means any person employed by the institute for reward or wage or in any other campus anywhere in the world in which this policy is applicable, including any teaching or non-teaching staff, temporary, part-time, honorary, employee, interns, volunteers, teacher assistants, research assistants, whether employed or not, including those involved in field studies, projects, short-visits and camps, maintenance staff by whatever name called and would include employees employed on a casual or project basis and also employed through contractor or otherwise, whether for remuneration or not, or working on a voluntary basis or otherwise, whether the terms of employment are expressed or implied and includes a co-worker, a contract worker, probationer, trainee, apprentice or called by any other such name.

b. "Student" means any person who is enrolled for any Institute course, which may include any distance programme, exchange programme, Management Development Programme (MDP), In company Training Programme, Business Management Programs, HR management programs, or any such programme conducted by or through XLRI Delhi-NCR whether in person or through distance mode, including any short-term training programs at the Institute. It also includes a student of another institute/college/university who is a visitor at any of the Institute premises or at any branches or franchisees of the Institute where the present policy applies.

c. "Institute" means XLRI Delhi-NCR or any other campus where XLRI Delhi-NCR conducts any course with or without a national or international partner/franchisee.

d. "Resident" means any person living on campus such as student, staff, faculty, families, management staff, and any other service provider.

4. CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMITTEE

a. A committee constituted for gender sensitisation and action against sexual harassment shall be called the Internal Committee ("IC / Committee"). It shall be hereafter in this policy be referred to as the committee.

v. Any vacancy created in the IC due to cessation of employment, resignation, death, disability or removal, as applicable, shall be filled by a fresh nomination by the Institution in accordance with its guidelines and in conjunction with provision of Law (where applicable).

Details of IC are given in Annexure 1.

5. FILING A COMPLAINT

The following need to be kept in mind regarding filing of a Complaint:

a. Anyone, of any age or gender, who alleges to have been subjected to any act of sexual harassment by the respondent ("Aggrieved Person") can file a complaint of sexual harassment against the "Respondent". Respondent (i.e. an employee or a student as defined above) shall refer to the person against whom the complaint of sexual harassment has been filed.

b. If the Aggrieved Person is unable to make a complaint on account of their physical incapacity, a complaint may be filed, with the written consent of the Aggrieved Person by:

- their relative or friend; or,
- their co-worker, co-student; or,
- an officer of the National Commission for Women or State Women's Commission; or,
- any person who has knowledge of the incident

c. If the Aggrieved Person is unable to make a complaint on account of mental incapacity, a complaint may be filed by:

- their relative or friend; or
- a special educator; or
- a qualified psychiatrist or psychologist; or
- the guardian or authority under whose care they are receiving treatment or care; or
- any person who has knowledge of the incident jointly with the Aggrieved Person's relative or friend or a special educator or qualified psychiatrist or psychologist, or guardian or authority under whose care they are receiving treatment or care.

d. If the Aggrieved Person for any other reason is unable to make a complaint, a complaint may be filed by any person who has knowledge of the incident, with their written consent. If the Aggrieved Person is deceased, a complaint may be filed by any person who has knowledge of the incident, with the written consent of their legal heir.

e. For the purposes of this policy, any of the persons referred to above i.e. the Aggrieved Person or any individual who may file a complaint on behalf of the Aggrieved Person shall be referred to as the "Complainant".

f. The complaint has to be in writing.

g. The Complainant should provide (if possible) as many specific details as possible including incidents, dates and people that are involved in their complaint. Details with respect to the following may be provided while filing a complaint:

i. The alleged event, matter or issue that is subject to the complaint (time/date/place etc.)
ii. The name and details of the Respondent against whom the complaint is being filed

h. Complaint must be made within a period of 3 (three) months from the date of incident and in case of a series of incidents, within a period of 3 (three) months from the date of last incident.

i. The IC, at its discretion, can extend the time limit for receiving a complaint to another period of 3 (three) months if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such which prevented the Complainant from filing a complaint within the first 3 (three) months. IC will record the reasons for such extension of 3 (three) months in writing.

j. If the Complainant needs assistance in writing the complaint, they can seek help from IC. The complaint can be submitted electronically at icc_convenor.delhi@xlri.ac.in to the IC or with any of the IC members (details provided in Annexure 1). Complaints can also be physically with any of the IC members (details provided in Annexure 1).

6. POWERS AND DUTIES

The Committee will have three main functions:

a) Sensitization and awareness generation
b) Crisis mediation
c) Redressal and inquiry

7. SENSITIZATION AND AWARENESS GENERATION

1. Publicity of the Policy against Sexual Harassment adopted by the Institute

a) The Policy, drawn up in summary form by the Committee, must be displayed prominently on all notice boards, including in residential areas, recreational centres and at all entrances to the University. The responsibility of displaying of posters will be as follows:

i. Library and Hostels
ii. Canteens, Amenity Centre

iii. Dean office
iv. Faculty Notice Board
v. Administrative Block
vi. Cafeteria
vii. MDP

b) In order to ensure the permanence of the placement of the Policy, and to reduce maintenance costs, there may be several copies painted on boards for display in key areas such as the Administration Blocks, Library, Hostels.
c) The Policy must be included in the Prospectus and Orientation brochures.
d) Each recruitment announcement must include the following line: XLRI Delhi-NCR has a policy against sexual harassment and is committed to providing an environment free from gender discrimination and sexual harassment.
e) The Policy, in summary form, must be printed on the admission, application and registration forms for the students each year/semester, and signed by them before they submit their forms.
f) All new service contracts for employees at all levels must include acceptance of the policy as a part of the service contract.
g) Those already in service should be asked to sign a separate statement accepting the Policy.
h) All affiliated/partner/franchisee institutions should be provided with a copy each of the complete Policy which will be made available for inspection to members of the university community upon request.
i) The Committee will in consultation with the student's body, and with the help of volunteers, perform its task of gender sensitisation of the workplace through workshops, seminars, skits, posters, film shows, debates etc.
j) The names, e-mail ID's, official addresses and telephone numbers of all members of the Committee, will be available in the office of the Dean (Administration).
k) A copy of this list must be provided to Institute Security as well, and all security guards must display a copy of this list prominently in their guard rooms. The responsibility for ensuring that Security is aware of and fulfils this requirement rests with the Security Officer of the Institute.

8. CRISIS MEDIATION

1. The names, e-mail ID's, official addresses and telephone numbers of all members of the Committee, will be available in the office of the Dean (Administration).
2. A copy of this list must be provided to Institute Security as well, and all security guards must display a copy of this list prominently in their guard rooms. The responsibility for ensuring that Security is aware of and fulfils this requirement rests with the Security Officer of the Institute.

9. REDRESSAL AND INQUIRY

I. Redressal Process

a. The Committee will maintain a register to endorse the complaint received by it and keep the contents confidential, if it is so desired, except to use the same for discreet inquiries, as and when required.

b. On receipt of the complaint, the IC shall send copy of the complaint received from the Complainant to the Respondent within a period of 7 (seven) working days. If the complaint has been received on email, the IC member shall forward the same to the Respondent, with clear instructions that the same is not to be shared with anyone and strict confidentiality has to be maintained.

c. The Respondent shall file the reply to the complaint along with list of documents, names and addresses of witnesses (if any), within a period of 10 (ten) working days from the date of receipt of the documents.

d. In the event, the complaint does not fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment or the complaint does not mean an offence of Sexual Harassment, the same would be dropped after recording the reasons thereof and the same shall be communicated to the Dean of Administration and / or any other authorized decision making individual and the complainant.

II. Conciliation

Prior to initiating an inquiry, the IC may, at the written request of the Complainant take steps to settle the matter between the Complainant and the Respondent through conciliation. The following need to be kept in mind with respect to conciliation:

i) It is not mandatory for Complainant to request for Conciliation.
ii) Conciliation cannot be done if inquiry has already started.
iii) In case a settlement has been arrived at, the IC shall record it and forward it to Institution to take action as specified in the recommendation of the IC.
iv) The IC will also provide copies of the settlement as recorded to the Complainant and the Respondent.
v) If conciliation has been reached, the IC will not be required to conduct any further inquiry.
vi) Monetary settlement cannot be made the basis of such conciliation.
vii) If Complainant feels that the terms of Settlement are not being complied with by the Respondent or action has not been taken by Institution, Complainant can make a written complaint to the IC to conduct an inquiry into the complaint.

III. Inquiry Process

i. If the Complainant does not wish to go for conciliation or if the conciliation reached between the parties is not complied with, the IC shall, upon a written request from the Complainant to do so, proceed to make inquiry into the complaint.
ii. If the Complainant or Respondent desires any witness/es to be called, they shall communicate in writing to the Committee the names of witness/es whom they propose to call.
iii. If the Complainant desires to tender any documents by way of evidence before the Committee, they shall supply original copies of such documents. Similarly, if the Respondent desires to tender any documents in evidence before the Committee they shall supply original copies of such documents. Both shall affix their signature on the respective documents to certify these to be original copies.
iv. The Committee shall call upon all witnesses mentioned by both the parties.
v. The Committee shall provide every reasonable opportunity to the Complainant and the Respondent, for putting forward and defending their respective allegations and claims.
vi. The Committee shall complete the "Inquiry" within reasonable period but not beyond three months from receipt of the complaint and communicate its findings and its recommendations for action to the Dean of Administration and / or any other authorized decision-making individual within ten days of conducting the inquiry.
vii. The IC shall have the powers to summon and enforce the attendance of any person and conduct an examination, request the discovery and production of documents and / or any other matter which may be necessary for the inquiry process. Any refusal by any Employee of Institution to attend any hearing before the IC when summoned or to provide to the IC, any documents and / or information within their power or possession shall constitute as misconduct, rendering such Employee for adverse action by the Institution.
viii. The IC shall have the right to terminate the inquiry proceedings or to give an ex parte decision on the complaint, if the Complainant or Respondent fails, without sufficient cause, to present themselves, for 3 (three) consecutive hearings convened by the Presiding Officer. Such termination or ex-parte order may not be passed without giving a notice in writing, 15 (fifteen) days in advance, to the Complainant or Respondent as the case maybe.
ix. IC shall notify in writing, the time and dates of its meetings to the Complainant, the Respondent and witnesses.
x. All inquiry proceedings will be documented in detail and treated as strictly confidential with restricted viewing only on need-to-know basis.
xi. Inquiry proceedings shall be minuted / recorded in writing. They may be audio recorded as well (where possible). The minutes / transcribed record of the proceedings and the statement of witnesses shall be endorsed by the persons concerned and IC in token of authenticity thereof.

xii. All colleagues and witnesses who are part of the IC proceedings will need to sign a confidentiality declaration.

IV. Redressal

a. The Dean of Administration and / or any other authorized decision-making individual shall act on the recommendations of the committee within a period of thirty days from the receipt of the inquiry report, subject to appeal provisions as mentioned below.

b. If the Dean of Administration and / or any other authorized decision-making individual decides not to act as per the recommendations of the IC, then the Dean of Administration and / or any other authorized decision-making individual shall record written reasons for the same to be conveyed to IC and both the parties to the proceedings.

c. If on the other hand it is decided to act as per the recommendations of the IC, then a show cause notice, answerable within ten days, shall be served on the party against whom action is decided to be taken. The Dean of Administration and / or any other authorized decision-making individual shall proceed only after considering the reply or hearing the individual concerned.

d. The disciplinary action will be commensurate with the nature of the violation.

1. In the case of Institute employees, disciplinary action could be in the form of any of the below actions. Please note that, for students as well as for employees, this list is indicative and not exhaustive:

   i. Warning
   ii. Written apology
   iii. Reprimand
   iv. Censure
   v. Bond of good behaviour
   vi. Adverse remarks in the Confidential Report
   vii. Debarring from supervisory duties viii. Denial of membership of statutory bodies
   ix. Denial of re-employment
   x. Stopping of increments/promotion
   xi. Reverting, demotion
   xii. Suspension
   xiii. Dismissal

xiv. Undergoing Counselling
xv. Carrying our Community Service
xvi. Any other relevant mechanism.

2. In case of students, in addition to any of the actions mentioned above as may be applicable, disciplinary action could also be in the form of:
   i. withhold privileges of the student such as access to the library, auditoria, halls of residence, transportation, scholarships, allowances, medals and identity card;
   ii. suspend or restrict entry into the campus for a specific period;
   iii. expel and strike off name from the rolls of the institution, including denial of readmission, if the offence so warrants;
   iv. award reformative punishments like mandatory counselling and, or, performance of community services
   v. any other relevant mechanism.

3. The aggrieved person is entitled to the payment of compensation at the discretion of the IC and / or the Dean of Administration and / or any other authorized decision-making individual. Accordingly, the Institute shall issue direction for payment of the compensation recommended by the IC and accepted by the Dean of Administration and / or any other authorized decision-making individual, as applicable, which shall be recovered from the Respondent. The compensation payable shall be determined based on–

   i. Mental trauma, pain, suffering and distress caused to the aggrieved person;
   ii. The loss of career opportunity due to the incident of sexual harassment;
   iii. The medical expenses incurred by the victim for physical, psychiatric treatment;
   iv. The income and status of the alleged perpetrator and victim; and
   v. The feasibility of such payment in lump sum or in instalments.

4. In the case of third-party harassment/outsider harassment, the Institute authorities shall initiate action by assisting the Complainant in making a complaint with the appropriate authority.

e. Enhancement of disciplinary action, by the committee, could depend on factors such as the nature and extent of injury caused to the complainant, the impact of the violation on the institution as a whole, the position of the harasser in the power hierarchy, repetition of offence etc.

f. In case it is proven that the Complaint is malicious

i. If on inquiry, it is revealed that the complaint was made with a malicious intent and with the motive of maligning the Respondent / tarnishing their image or otherwise and/or to settle personal / professional scores, strict action will be recommended by IC against the Complainant. Hence, in case IC arrives at a conclusion that allegation against the Respondent is malicious or Complainant has made the complaint knowing it to be false or has produced a forged or misleading document, IC may recommend to Institution to take an action applicable to Respondent if the complaint was genuine. In this regard, IC may recommend any of the actions specified above (As applicable).

ii. A mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof need not attract action against the Complainant as the malicious intent on the part of the Complainant will have to be established through the inquiry process before an action against such Complainant is recommended

10. INTERIM MEASURES

During the pendency of an inquiry, on a written request made by the Complainant, the IC may recommend any of the following to Institute:

i. Transfer the complainant or the respondent to another section or department to minimise the risks involved in contact or interaction.
ii. Grant leave to the aggrieved with full protection of status and benefits for a period up to three months.
iii. Restrain the respondent from reporting on or evaluating the work or performance or tests or examinations of the complainant.
iv. Ensure that offenders are warned to keep a distance from the aggrieved, and wherever necessary, if there is a definite threat, restrain their entry into the campus.
v. Take strict measures to provide a conducive environment of safety and protection to the complainant against retaliation and victimisation as a consequence of making a complaint of sexual harassment.

11. PROCEDURE FOR FILING AN APPEAL

An appeal against the findings or /recommendations of the IC may be filed by either party before the Dean of Administration and / or any other authorized decision-making individual of the Institute within a period of thirty days from the date of the recommendations

a. All discussions / decisions pertaining to an incident of sexual harassment must be kept confidential. Therefore, contents of the complaint made, the identity and addresses of the Complainant, Respondent and witnesses, any information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings, inquiry report including recommendations of the IC and action taken on the Respondent shall not be published, communicated or made known to the public, press and media in any manner. However, information may be disseminated regarding the justice secured to any victim without disclosing the name, address, identity or any other particulars calculated to lead to the identification of the Complainant and witnesses.

b. Appropriate information will be shared with Government authorities as per the Act. If any person breaches confidentiality, they shall be liable for penalty as per service rules and / or Law. Institution shall recover a sum of rupees five thousand (5,000) as penalty from such person and may take any other action as it may deem fit.

c. As mentioned in Clause 4(d) above, an IC member shall be removed / replaced in the event that the IC member breaches confidentiality.

13. PROTECTION AGAINST RETALIATION

There will be no retaliation against anyone who, in good faith, files a complaint or participates in any way in the inquiry of a complaint. Institution will not allow retaliation against that person. Individuals engaging in retaliatory conduct will be subject to strict disciplinary action and if necessary legal action and/or a police complaint. If you suspect that you or someone you know has been retaliated against for raising an issue, immediately contact the IC.

14. FILING OF COMPLAINT WITH POLICE

a. Nothing in these rules and procedures shall preclude anybody from simultaneously lodging a complaint with the police in respect of any act amounting to an offence under the law. Institution will provide assistance in this regard, if assistance is sought. This Policy is not intended to impair or limit the right of any Employee seeking a remedy available under any law. Proceedings under this Policy shall continue notwithstanding any proceedings initiated by a Complainant (as defined hereinafter) against Respondent under any law in force.

b. In case of a complaint of sexual harassment or any other offense against a child, as per the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 (“POCSO”), or in case of offense by a child, the provisions under POCSO and Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 may become applicable and would have to be dealt with in accordance with these laws. A child is any person below the age of eighteen years.

15. AMENDMENTS

a. Institution reserves the right to amend the Policy from time to time in order to comply with any laws / rules / regulations that come into effect from time to time, related to sexual harassment at workplace. This Policy shall be reviewed bi-annually or as and when key issues get raised to incorporate amendments.

b. This Policy does not intend to create any contractual obligation for or with Institution, and in case of dispute with the Law and the Policy, the Law shall prevail.
